Men's Fine Neglige Shirts 69c
Our Semi-Annual Sale of the Famous "Onyx" Brand Shirts. Sold Regularly at $1.50 and $2.00

Washington men are taking full advantage of the unusual opportunity offered in this twice-a-year sale, the record selling attests. They are the surplus lots from a maker who turns out only the very highest grade shirts. We get them in June and January—hundreds of dozens of high-class shirts, in patterns that are smart, neat and refined; the sort that appeal to men of critical taste.

The original labels are either "cut out" or "covered over" with other labels—this being done by the manufacturer as a protection to other dealers who are selling exact duplicates of these shirts for $1.50 and $2.00.

A desirable feature is that a great many are made with SOFT FRENCH CUFFS. Others have attached cuffs. Choice of plain or plaited bosoms; all made in the newest "coat" style. Some with collars attached.

Materials of the finest sort, including imported woven Scotch madras, French percale, white butcher's linen, striped madras, plain white madras, plain colored madras, pongee, soisette, Russian cords and mercerized shirtings. Choice offered of hundreds of beautiful patterns, in light, medium and dark grounds, with neat stripes, dots and figures. All good washable colors—plenty of wanted black-and-white and blue-and-white.

ALL SIZES IN THE SALE from 14 to 18. Choice of values actually worth $1.50 and $2.00 at 69c.
